RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA. THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1884.

NO. 85.

Ex-Minister Sargent Interviewed.

The Herald reports Sargent as saying: "I learned with great pleasure of Kasson's going to Berlin. I consider this an excellent appointment. Kasson is a strong man, and I am glad on the whole the place has not been left vacant. But I am certain of one thing, the Minister at Berlin will have to wink at a good many things, or he will find the position made very hot for him under Germany's present policy. I have no desire to belittle Bismarck in the slightest degree, but he tried to do the entire thinking of a nation. No man can do that successfully."

"Do you feel that our Government failed to support you properly?"

"I do not care to talk about that. It would probably have been better if the Government had acted more promptly. What amazes me is that the American people should be content to remain in their present unprotected condition, trusting to the complaisance of the Powers, which are never complaisant with one another."

The Tribune reporter quotes Sargent as saying: "Blaine was the first choice of California. My choice is the Republican party. Blaine was nominated partly because his opponents could not agree on their own man, and it seems hard for those defeated fairly in convention to say to the sterling Republican States which backed Blaine, you shall make nothing by your fairly won victory."

A New Counterfeit.

The secret service division of the Treasury Department has received advice that a new counterfeit has appeared in the West. It is supposed to have been printed from a wood cut, but is likely to deceive an ordinary judge of money. It is of the series of 1880, G. W. Scofield Register, and James Gilliland Treasurer. The note is one-quarter of an inch shorter than the genuine, and the paper is composed of two thin layers, with silk parallel lines, and fibre placed between them. On the back, where it should read "and all public debts and when so received," the word "all" is entirely omitted, and the words "when so" are read together as one word. There are numerous other defects which judges of paper money will readily discover.

An important joint commission was appointed Monday, to consist of three Senators and three Representatives, to sit during the recess to consider the question of combining the Coast, Geodetic and Hydrographic and Geological Surveys and the Signal Corps or Weather Bureau. At present these four bureaus are run without any practical supervision, independent of each other and of the several departments to which they are attached. It is urged that greater economy and an increased efficiency will be secured by placing them under one responsible superintendent. The commission will report a plan of carrying this into effect next session.

The Democrats delight to ring the changes in the fact that certain independent papers oppose Mr. Blaine. Here is a Roland—the Philadelphia Times, Abend Post (N. Y.), the Irish World, Utica Star and the Troy Inquirer—all heretofore intensely Democratic, are for Blaine and Logan, and the list is but a partial one, be it remembered.

MEATS

FOR PRESIDENT.

JAS. G. BLAINE,
OF MAINE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

JOHN A. LOGAN, OF ILLINOIS.

MR. TILDEN'S MALADY.

Inasmuch as Mr. Tilden has retired from politics it would seem to be about time the contradictory reports concerning the state of his health should cease. They are getting monotonous, and their wide divergence robs them of interest, even to his warmest admirers and most ardent sympathizers. Yesterday's dispatches contain two accounts, written and published on the day before, the one representing the old gentleman as brisk and active, promenading two hours in his spacious grounds, taking a long ride in the afternoon, attending to his correspondence and going out in his yacht nearly every day. The other represents him as a galvanized corpse, his arms hanging limp by his side, and as being in the last stages of physical and mental decay. Now which of these stories is true? There is an old humorous superstition that a Dutchman cannot see after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. May it not be possible that the venerable Sage has his periods of activity and his hours of collapse; hours when he "saddles Blackstone" and charges through the Park with the dash of a Light Dragoon, to be succeeded immediately by a relapse in which he poses as an Egyptian mummy, with a galvanic battery occasionally applied to the extremity of his spinal column? It is certainly a remarkable case worthy the attention of medical scientists. In some of the river bottoms on the Sacramento, where fever and ague prevails, the inhabitants have their "chill days" which occur on alternate days. Then they shake so that they shake the fruit off the trees, and the following day, being "well day," they gather it up. This disease has however long since passed out of the realms of the phenomenal and has been measurably mastered by science and quinine. But the peculiar conditions that make the stalwart in the morning, a seeming corpse in the afternoon, and bring him out the next morning with all the vigor of youth, only to be reduced to a condition of decrepit servility in the afternoon, and so continues its performances day after day is well worthy of investigation. It has been suggested that the disease is the "Presidential itch," only that the patient is not as lively when attacked with the former as by the latter. When the Chicago Convention shall have adjourned it is to be hoped that Mr. Tilden's condition will improve, and that his malady will leave him.

BUTLER'S MISTAKE.

The telegraphed statement that Butler had declared that he would support the Democratic ticket whoever the nominees might be, was at first received here with incredulity if not amazement. The Greenbackers and Labor Reformers who have a representation in this section, promptly declared the report to be a lie, so certain were they that Butler would not desert them, but would stand by the friends who had ever been true to him and whose principles he had advocated through many years. His declaration, if made, could bear no other interpretation than that it was intended as a strong bid for the Democratic nomination, which he had decided could not be obtained until he had placed himself on the same footing with the party as had other candidates. No doubt there have been mutterings of discontent among the Democracy as to its attitude, and he has had the sagacity to see that all of the noise and fuss and fustian of his outside admirers, while it inspired the Democracy with terror did not accomplish the purpose of securing the votes of delegates. On the contrary it probably aroused antagonisms without any compensating benefits. In other words the convention would not be bull-dozed, and realizing this fact, Butler comes forward and says that, really he didn't mean it, and that he is as true and loyal a Democrat as any of them. By this action he has placed himself en rapport with the Democracy, but how will it be with the other so-called "parties" whose nominations he has accepted? Will they sit idly by sucking their thumbs and permit Butler to sell them out like so many sheep? His declaration certainly shows such to be his design in case he fails to receive the Democratic nomination himself. "If I am nominated I shall have this following any way; but if I am not nominated I will try and turn it over to you." It is doubtful if Butler can deliver any considerable portion of the goods. He has a mixture of enthusiasts, fanatics and cranks to deal, with whose main idea is that the two great parties are altogether wrong, and that each of the outsiders in his particular hobby is entirely right. Besides, they would be deprived of the pleasure of holding conventions, of offering and debating resolutions devoted to their several pet themes, and of seeing their names prominently in print. The moral and political reformation of the universe, which they have at heart, would be set back for untold centuries if they did not stand by their alleged principles. No, Butler can't control his cranks, and in deserting them he has made a fatal mistake.

In the Democratic National Convention now assembled at Chicago there are 802 delegates, representing the thirty-eight States. Should the two-thirds rule be maintained, the number of votes required to nominate will be 535; should the majority rule be adopted, the number of votes necessary to nominate would be 401. In addition to the 802 delegates mentioned, two delegates from each Territory will be entitled to seats in the Convention. Should these Territorial delegates be allowed to vote (which is probable), the total number of votes would be 820; necessary to elect, under two-thirds rule, 547; necessary to elect, under majority rule, 411.

The last Democratic National Convention was held at Cincinnati on June 22, 1880. The first ballot for President stood as follows: Hancock, 171; Bayard, 133½; Field, 65; Morrison, 64; Hendricks, 50½; Thurman, 68½; Payne, 81; Tilden, 37. The whole number of delegates was 738; necessary to a choice 554. On the second ballot the vote stood: Hancock, 320; Bayard, 113; Field, 165½; Hendricks, 31; Thurman, 50; Tilden, 6; Randall, 125½; English, 19—before the result was announced State after State changed its vote, and the ballot, as finally declared, was Hancock, 705; Bayard, 2; Hendricks, 30. The first ballot was taken at 5 p. m. on the second day's session of the Convention, and the second ballot on the morning following.

When "Old Snuff" appeared on the stage at Chicago yesterday, one Munchausen Thaumaturgus Thompkins, a member of the California delegation arose and said "The California delegation, after traveling 2500 miles, catches its first glimpse of paradise in the person of Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio." It is evident that the Chicago atmosphere has a bad effect on California Zinfandel and Neglee brandy, and that M. T. Thompkins (with a "p") had 'em bad. His friends should have given him a dose of bromide in the morning.

The little boys, as well as the men, living in the vicinity of pine forests have a new and lucrative industry opened up to them. The symbol of the Blaine campaign will be a fine cone ornamented in patriotic colors, with the motto "The woods are full of 'em." The demand for these cones will run far up into the millions, and will be difficult to supply. The woods evidently won't be "full of 'em" after the campaign is over.

The Democracy have not been very successful with candidates from New York. They have tried four since 1864 and met with disaster every time. McClellan in 1864, Seymour in 1868, Greeley in 1872 and Tilden in 1876. Besides these, they nominated Hancock in 1880, who is more a New Yorker than anything else, and met with still another defeat.

Chris Buckley seems to have "chopped" again if the latest telegrams are to be believed, which state that he declares himself for Thurman, and that he never was for Field. Still Buckley may change his mind again if he sees that Field has any show. In fact the whole outfit seems to be in a chop sea, and we will trust Buckley to chop as fast as the Convention can.

A reaction seems to be setting in against the new standard time, which was so enthusiastically adopted at the East last Winter. The city of Louisville, Ky., which has been conforming to the new standard, has set her clocks forward eighteen minutes to catch up to the old local time.

A member of the Ohio delegation in the Chicago Convention on being asked how his delegation stood replied that as near as he could make out there were three for harmony and forty for hell.

It is reported, says the Times, that Senator J. P. Jones will be in Los Angeles next month, and proposes to put on the market his unsold Santa Monica lands.

Washoe county will give 250 majority for Blaine and Logan this Fall, and make a clean sweep of the Republican county ticket.

Adjournment of Congress.

The first session of the Forty-eighth Congress adjourned at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. Mr. Edmunds, President pro tem. of the Senate, spoke as follows:

Senators: The hour that closes the first session of the Forty-eighth Congress has come. It fills almost a century of constitutional republican government of the people whose career has excited the admiration and wonder of mankind. Let us hope that our labors as representatives of the State and people may justify placing another white stone in the long, shining pathway of the Republic. However ardent and perplexing may have been our labors, however exciting may have been the conflict of opposing opinions and politics, no one of us, I think, can meet the hour of our separation without emotions, and I hope not unpleasant solicitude, that embrace the past, present and future. The smallness of our number and the peculiar nature of our organization, which embraces a potent participation in the action of our three-fold organization of Government, legislative, executive and judicial, produces an intimacy of personal relations as pleasant as they are important, and makes the moment when we separate one of peculiar interest and tenderness. The Chair makes his sincere and grateful acknowledgments for the very flattering resolution of the Senate touching his administration of the duties imposed on him by his office. He is glad and proud to say that, without exception, he has been aided by the constant kindness, courtesy and assistance of all the members of the Senate and its officers. The Chair, in now performing this last formal act of the session, wishes for all of you every felicity, and he begs to express to each one of you his heartfelt personal friendship and good will. The present sitting session of the Forty-eighth Congress stands adjourned without date.

When the Vice President closed his farewell remarks, the Chambers and galleries were quickly vacated.

Failure of Two Pacific Coast Bills

Mr. Budd asked unanimous consent in the house Monday morning to take up for consideration the bill which passed the Senate providing for the erection of a public building at Sacramento, Cal. There was no other way to get the bill considered, except by unanimous consent, and had Brewer of New York, not objected, the bill would probably have been passed, or if not, would have gone to the calendar and been in good position for action next session. But Drew-er objected, and thus the chance of getting the bill through was lost. Cassidy's bill for a public building at Carson City, was taken up, and had there been a quorum would have passed. A deadlock was created by Guenther's point of no quorum made on the vote on Cassidy's bill, and the deadlock was only broken by the arrival of the time for final adjournment.

Revenue Agents Discharged.

In pursuance of the provision of the Legislature, Judicial and Executive Appropriation bill reducing the number of Internal Revenue agents from thirty-five to twenty, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has ordered the discharge of the following-named agents: H. J. McKusick, of California, John Young, of Tennessee, John M. Burns, of Kentucky, J. B. McCoy, of Wisconsin, James A. Ray, of Kentucky, O. B. Harrison, of Tennessee, John M. Ramm, of Illinois, Jasper Packard, of Indiana, W. L. Hollister, of Minnesota, A. M. Crane of California, J. L. Trumbull, of Indiana.

Will They Refund the Money?

Prominent Stockton Democratic officials raised a subscription to fire a salute when the Presidential nomination is announced. They will fire no salute and will refund the money if Stephen J. Field is nominated.

The Illinois State Journal refers to the inconsistent position maintained by Harper's Weekly in the following vigorous language: "Harper's Weekly, twenty-four years ago, was denouncing Abraham Lincoln and caricaturing him in the vilest and most disgusting forms; yet it has the impudence now to profess to be his special champion and defender. Eight years ago the same paper, with its present editor was lauding James G. Blaine and laboring to secure his nomination for the Presidency; yet it now denounces him as unworthy of support and spite upon his nomination. Could inconsistency go farther?"

The Convention now in session in Chicago is the first of the Democratic party that has ever permitted delegates from the Territories to vote. The result of their action in this regard is that it will now require 547 votes to nominate under the two-thirds rule. The prospects of Cleveland are therefore not as flattering as they were yesterday.

John R. Bradley, son of the ex-Governor, and one of the most prominent citizens in Elko county, announces himself a candidate for the Long Term Commissionership of Elko, subject of course, to the Democratic County Convention.

The funeral of Ross Lavalliere took place at Carson yesterday under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

The Most Venomous Enemy the Irish-American Has.

The treason of Harper's Weekly—whether it be that of conscience or compensation—is good fortune for the Republican party in one respect. It rids it of a venomous enemy of Irishmen and Catholics. For many long years, and indeed ever since Nast has dominated it with his pictures, it has been brutally offensive to the Irish people and to the Catholics. It has constantly struck all Irishmen in the face with the full width of its hand, has ceaselessly given to Irishmen in its caricatures faces like beasts, and as constantly derided the Catholic Church. Its caricatures of Ireland's sorrows in the mass have been as unrelenting as they have been cruel, and its derision of Irishmen in America fully as brutal. Its onslaught on the Pope, its caricatures of him and the sacred ceremonies of the church have all been shocking to fair play and repugnant to the American sense of decency. There is not the least doubt that its brutality toward and abuse of Irishmen have done more than anything else to keep New York City Democratic and to drive the Irishmen as a mass into the Democratic party. Now it is gone. It goes, too, just as the impulse is on hundreds of thousands of Irishmen, because of their antipathy to various Democratic theories, to come over to the Republican party. It will help them to come with accelerating pace as they see their old arch-enemy, Harper's Weekly, leaving the party. On the whole, therefore, there is not much to regret in the departure of the paper.—Des Moines Register.

Lost More Than His Money.—Some time ago a well-known English sportsman, who is a devout Roman Catholic, was married to a wealthy Protestant lady. It was agreed that the children (of whom there were several) should be educated in the Roman Catholic faith. The gentleman's speculations on the turf proving extremely unfortunate, he was compelled to ask his wife for assistance. This she consented to render on condition that the son and heir was brought up in the Established Church. After some demur this was agreed to, the father consoling himself with the reflection that the other children would be left to him. But ill fortune still pursued him, and after another loss he had to apply to his wife again, with the same result, viz., the surrender of another olive-branch. Still the luck did not turn, and at a recent race meeting, after a series of reverses, he was heard shouting excitedly, "Outsider wins! Outsider wins! Good Heaven, I shan't have one d—d little Catholic left!"

The appointment of Kasson to succeed Sargent at Berlin is a step in the right direction. The new Minister has seen diplomatic service at the Austrian capital; he speaks German and he is acquainted with many of the officials whom he will meet at Berlin. Moreover, which is a great point in his favor, he has made a good impression at Vienna and is acceptable to the German authorities. His transfer removes Francis from Portugal to Austria and makes a number of other promotions. It is a far more sensible way to fill a first-class foreign mission with a man who has done good service in a second-class place than to put in a leading position one who has nothing but political influence to recommend him.—S. F. Chronicle.

It is rumored that J. C. Stubbs, Traffic Manager of the Central and Southern Pacific Railroad system, is to be promoted to the position of Assistant General Manager on his return from the East.

IT LEADS ALL.

No other blood-purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking taint of Scrofula about you, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will disclose it and expel it from your system. For constitutional or scrofulous Catarrh, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the CATARRH true remedy. It has cured hundreds of cases. It will stop the nauseous catarrhal discharges, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin.

ULCEROUS SORES—At the age of two years one of my children was terribly afflicted with ulcerous running sores on its face and neck. At the same time its eyes were swollen, much inflamed, and very sore. Physicians told us that a powerful alternative medicine must be employed. They united in recommending Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by an adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of any scrofulous tendencies, and no treatment of any disorder was ever attended by more prompt or effectual results.

Yours truly,
B. F. JOHNSON.

THE SEN.

Ex-Senator Sharon Passes Through on his Way to the Bay.

Last evening's train from the East brought ex-Senator William Sharon, who proceeded on his way to San Francisco. He was met at the depot by J. W. Eckley, the agent of the Bank of California, at Virginia City, and H. M. Yerington, of the V. & T. Railroad, who, with W. E. Sharon, Superintendent of the Yellow Jacket, engrossed his attention while here. A JOURNAL reporter passed a few words with ex-Senator:

"You are direct from Chicago?" asked the reporter.

"Yes, I left there a few days ago!"

"What do you think of Field's chances?"

"Well, I left Chicago before the Convention met and of course I am not posted on what has occurred since, but I think Field has a chance. So far as the situation to-day is concerned I am all at sea, because I do not know what has taken place since I left."

"Then you have no opinion as to who will be the nominee?"

"None whatever; I know nothing of the situation as it exists to-day."

The reporter also interviewed Mr. Yerington, who could only say that it was "a terribly mixed fight, and no one could predict the outcome of it."

Mr. Yerington proceeded to the Bay with Mr. Sharon, and Mr. Eckley and W. E. Sharon returned to Virginia last evening by private conveyance, the way they came.

Bad Business.

The Adventists, who are holding religious services in the big tent on North Virginia street, complain that their meetings are disturbed by a crowd of hilarious boys. Yesterday Elder Ballou went before Justice Young and swore out a warrant for the arrest of a number of the offenders. The boys should remember that this is a glorious free country, and that these people are but exercising a right dear to every citizen, and that the law prescribes a heavy penalty upon every individual who attempts to interfere with their peaceful enjoyment of that right. If you do not like their doctrine it is your privilege to stay away, but it is neither the right nor privilege of any one to disturb the meetings, or to annoy those who do attend, either for pleasure or profit. In this connection it is well to remember that golden rule, "Do not unto others that which you would not have others do unto you."

Datholite.

Who ever heard of any such thing? It is the name given to a new preparation gotten up by the Datholite Company of Reno, which is composed of some of our most prominent business men. The purpose for which this preparation is used has not yet been given to the public, but will be in a few days. George Purdie has been selected traveling agent for the company, and left yesterday morning on a trip through the southern part of the State to introduce the new preparation. It must have some virtues or Purdie never would have consented to become an agent for it. The JOURNAL wishes success to the new enterprise, and all connected with it.

The Pioneer Workman.

J. L. McFarlin, of the pioneer blacksmith and wagon shop, has had his ups and downs to contend with the same as other business men, yet he has always maintained a position at the front in that line of business. He has always and is now doing a good business and gives employment to more men than any shop in this part of the State. He is making a specialty of machinery and farming implements of all kinds, and is prepared to furnish extras for any piece of machinery desired at a moment's notice. Read his card elsewhere.

The Nevada delegation was met on the train a few miles out of Chicago by a committee and escorted into the city, and together with the Pacific Coast delegation, have been the heroes of the hour, and have been wined and dined on all occasions.

District Court.

The only matter before the District Court yesterday was the application of C. H. Eastman and C. T. Bender for letters of administration in the Lake estate, and that was postponed until Saturday in order that the question may be determined with the application to probate the will which comes up for hearing at that time.

BREVITIES.

Mrs. J. E. Jones is back from her visit to Eagleville.

An assessment of 50 cents per share has been levied on Best & Belcher.

A. N. Town, of the C. P. was a passenger for the east yesterday morning.

Wm. Thompson has brought another suit against the Reno Savings Bank for $20,000.

Miss Bonham of Buffalo Station, was in town yesterday doing a little shopping.

Miss Theresa Tuffy, of Carson, came down last evening and will remain a few days the guest of Mrs. Shaffer.

Tip Clark, the engineer, was not suffering from paralysis as reported, but from rheumatism. He has resumed work as usual.

Hon. W. C. Burnette, ex-City Attorney of San Francisco, passed through on the west-bound train last evening, after a visit to Bodie.

Hon. J. S. Stephens, District Attorney of Storey county, was a passenger for the Bay last evening. He says he has not made up his mind as to whether or not he will be a candidate for any office this year.

Doctor Hogan claims to have the biggest barn in the State. It is 50 feet wide, 250 feet long and two stories high. It required some greenbacks to build it, and will require more to produce hay enough to fill it.

Sirius Speers, the emigrant who had his foot mangled in trying to board a freight train near Wadsworth about two months ago, and was taken to the county hospital where his foot was amputated, left last evening for Sonoma county, Cal., where he was going when the accident happened.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine.

The August number, abounding with edifying and pleasant reading, is already upon our table, and is always welcome. "New Zealand and the Canterbury Settlement" is the opening article, by Rev. F. Pember, B. A., with numerous illustrations. The late Lady Blanche Murphy, Rev. E. A. Rand, F. E. Weatherly, James Croil, James Buckham, Alfreton Hervey, Mrs. Alexander, J. Alex. Patten, and other favorite writers have contributed to this number. The editor T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., gives some excellent "Advice to Young People," and the Home Pulpit has a sermon of his, "Is Life Worth Living?" There are two interesting serials, and sketches, poems, essays, etc.; a miscellany, interesting and instructive, and the usual record of important events, editorial comments, obituaries, etc., etc. Price 25 cents a number, $2 50 a year, postpaid. Mrs. Frank Leslie, Publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

San Francisco Meat Market.

Beef and Mutton are both in better supply and prices are more favorable to buyers. Some few choice Beef Cattle sell a shade above our figures at times. Calves continue scarce and high, owing to the large number kept by stockmen to raise. Hogs are coming in slowly, while prices remain unchanged. Following are rates for whole carcasses from the slaughterers to dealers:

BEEF—First quality, 8@8 1/2; second quality, 7@7 1/2; third quality, 6@6 1/2 c lb.

VEAL—Quotable at 9@12 1/2 c lb.

MUTTON—Wethers are quotable at 6c and Ewes at 4 1/2@4 3/4 c lb.

LAMB—Spring is quotable at 6 1/2@7 c lb.

PORK—Live Hogs, 6@6 1/2 c for hard grain Hogs on foot; dressed do, 8@8 1/2 c lb.

Hoisting Works Burned.

The hoisting works of the Delaware Mining Company, situated on American Flat, were destroyed by fire about 11:30 o'clock last Monday night. The mine has not been worked for three or four months past, but it was the intention of the management to resume work in about two months. At the time of the fire J. M. Quimble, watchman at the mine, was absent. When discovered the south side of the building was in flames. As there was no water in the immediate vicinity, nothing could be done to stay the progress of the flames, which in a short time consumed the building. The machinery is almost totally destroyed. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary—Virginia Enterprise.

Very Attractive.

The advertising material, printing, etc., of Whiteley's "Hidden Hand" Company, who appear at the Opera House next Tuesday evening, is, without doubt, the finest and most attractive that has ever been displayed in town, and the company are unusually lavish in using it, truly believing that printers' ink, judiciously and extensively used, is always a good paying investment. The company have been having wonderful success everywhere, crowded houses nightly being the rule, and it is safe to anticipate their engagement in Reno will be an unusually good one.

County Political Notes.

The political pot has commenced to simmer in these parts. It is said that all the present county officers, with the exception of County Clerk Osburn, will be candidates for re-nomination, and the chances are favorable for them to receive the nominations from their respective parties. Should Sheriff Emmitt, Treasurer Boyd, District Attorney Alexander and Commissioner Sawyer be re-nominated there will be but few offices remaining for the Republicans to bother about. There will not be an Assessor or Supt. of Schools to look out for, and the Clerk, Recorder, a Commissioner and the Legislative ticket will only demand attention. Tom Julien will ask for the Clerkship. S. M. Jamison is talked of for Recorder. Tom Myers and H. M. Frost are spoken of in connection with the Commissioner-ship. H. L. Fish is spoken of for State Senator, while for the Assembly no person is particularly mentioned. Among the Democrats Lev Flint and Jim Gregory are spoken of for Sheriff, M. D. Bowen wants the nomination for Clerk, but there does not seem to be anybody anxious for the other places.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-51-wi-lyr

When the blood moves sluggishly in the veins because it is loaded with impurities, an alternative is needed, as this condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood and impart energy to the system.

PLATFORM OF THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Adopted by the National Republican Convention at Chicago.

The Republicans of the United States, in national convention assembled, renew their allegiance to the principles upon which they have triumphed in six successive Presidential elections and congratulate the American people on the attainment of so many results in legislation and administration, by which the Republican party has, after saving the Union, done so much to render its institutions just, equal and beneficent, the safeguard of liberty and the embodiment of the best thought and highest purposes of our citizens. The Republican party has gained its strength by a quick and faithful response to the demands of the people for freedom and equality of all men for a united nation, assuring the rights of all citizens, for the elevation of labor, for an honest currency, for purity in legislation and for integrity and accountability in all the departments of the Government, and it accepts anew the duty of leading in the work of progress and reform.

We lament the death of President Garfield, whose sound statesmanship, long conspicuous in Congress, gave promise of a strong and successful administration, a promise fully realized during the short period of his office as President of the United States. His distinguished success in war and peace has endeared him to the hearts of the American people. In the administration of President Arthur we recognize a wise, conservative and patriotic policy, under which the country has been blessed with remarkable prosperity. We believe his eminent services are entitled to and will receive the hearty approval of every citizen.

It is the first duty of a good Government to protect the rights and promote the interests of its own people. The largest diversity of industry is most productive of general prosperity and the comfort and independence of the people, the taxpayers, without injuring the laborer or the great productive interests of the country.

We recognize the importance of sheep husbandry in the United States, the serious depression which it is now experiencing, and the danger threatening its future prosperity, and we therefore respect the demands of the representatives of this important agricultural interest for the readjustment of the duty upon foreign wool, in order that such industry shall have full and adequate protection. We therefore demand that the imposition of duties on foreign imports shall be made not for revenue only, but that in raising the requisite revenue for the Government such duties shall be so levied as to afford security to our diversified industries and protection to the rights and wages of the laborer, to the end that active and intelligent labor, as well as capital, may have its just reward, and the laboring man his full share in the national prosperity.

Against the so-called economic system of the Democratic party, which would degrade our labor to the foreign standard, we enter our earnest protest. The Democratic party has failed completely to relieve the people of the burden of unnecessary taxation by a wise reduction of the surplus. The Republican party pledges itself to correct the irregularities of the tariff and reduce the surplus, not by the vicious and indiscriminate process of horizontal reduction, but by such methods as will relieve the taxpayer without injuring the laborer or the great productive interests of the country. The Republican party favors a policy which shall keep us from entangling alliances with foreign nations and which gives us the right to expect that foreign nations shall refrain from meddling in American affairs. The policy which seeks peace can trade with all Powers, but especially with those of the Western Hemisphere.

We demand the restoration of our navy to its old-time strength and efficiency, that it may in any sea protect the rights of American citizens and the interests of American commerce, and we call upon Congress to remove the burdens under which American shipping has been depressed, so that it may again be true that we have a commerce.

It is the duty of Congress to enact such laws as shall promptly and effectually suppress the system of polygamy within our Territories, and divorce the political from the ecclesiastical power of the so-called Mormon Church, and that the laws so enacted should be rigidly enforced by the civil authorities, if possible, and by the military, if need be.

The people of the United States, in their organized capacity, constitute a nation and not a mere confederacy of States. The National Government is supreme within the sphere of its national duty, but the States have reserved rights which should be faithfully maintained.

We have always recommended the best money known to the civilized world, and we urge that efforts should be made to unite all the commercial nations in the establishment of an international standard, which shall fix for all the relative value of gold and silver coinage.

The regulations of commerce with foreign nations and between the States is one of the most important prerogatives of the general Government, and the Republican party distinctly announces its purpose to support such legislation as will fully and efficiently carry out the constitutional power of Congress over interstate commerce.

The principle of the public regulation of railroad corporations is a wise and salutary one for the protection of all classes of the people, and we favor legislation that shall prevent unjust discrimination and excessive charges for transportation, and that shall secure to the people and the railways alike the fair and equal protection of the laws.

We favor the establishment of a national bureau of labor, the enforcement of the eight-hour law, and a wise and judicious system of general education by adequate appropriations from the national revenue where the same is needed.

We believe that everywhere the protection accorded to citizens of American birth must be secured to citizens by American adoption, and we favor the settlement of national differences by international arbitration.

The Republican party, having its birth in a hatred of slave labor and a desire that all men may be truly free and equal, is unalterably opposed to placing our workmen in competition with any form of servile labor, whether at home or abroad. In this spirit we denounce the importation of contract labor, whether from Europe or Asia, as an offense against the spirit of American institutions, and we pledge ourselves to sustain the present law restricting Chinese immigration and to provide such further legislation as is necessary to carry out its purposes.

The reform of the civil service auspiciously begun under Republican administration should be completed by the further extension of the reform system already established by law to all grades of the service to which it is applicable. The spirit and purpose of the reform should be observed in all executive appointments and all laws at variance with the object of existing reform legislation should be repealed, to the end that the dangers to free institutions which lurk in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectively avoided.

The public lands are a heritage of the people of the United States and should be reserved, as far as possible, for small holdings by actual settlers. We are opposed to the acquisition of large tracts of these lands by corporations or individuals, especially where such holdings are in the hands of non-resident aliens, and we will endeavor to obtain such legislation as will tend to correct this evil. We demand of Congress the speedy forfeiture of all land grants which have lapsed by reason of non-compliance with the acts of incorporation, in all cases where there has been no attempt in good faith to perform the conditions of such grants.

The perpetuity of our institutions rests upon the maintaining of a free ballot, honest count and correct returns. We denounce the fraud and violence practiced by the Democratic party in the Southern States, by which the will of the voter is defeated, as dangerous to the preservation of our free institutions, and we solemnly arraign the Democratic party as being the guilty recipient of the fruits of such fraud and violence. We extend to the Republicans of the South, regardless of their former party affiliations, our cordial sympathy, and pledge to them our most earnest efforts to promote the passage of such legislation as will secure to every citizen of whatever race and color the full and complete recognition, possession and exercise of his civil and political rights.

Appointments by the President to offices in the Territories should be made from bona fide citizens and residents of the Territories wherein they are to serve.

The grateful thanks of the American people are due to the Union soldiers and sailors of the late war, and the Republican party stands pledged to provide suitable pension for all who were disabled and for the widows and orphans of those who died in the war. The Republican party also pledges itself to the repeal of the limitation contained in the Arrears of Pensions Act of 1879, so that all invalid soldiers shall share alike and their pensions begin within the date of disability or discharge and not with the date of the application.
